

I would like Wisconsin to keep its no call list as it is. For the fact I have gone as far as not having an answering machine at home in order to not put up with calls from telemarketers or others that I cancel services with.

Please this was created to help consumers not the business place. I like peace and quiet at home.